DETAILED ACTION

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Drawings

Applicant should ensure that (1) all reference characters in the drawings are described in the detailed description portion of the specification and (2) all reference characters mentioned in the specification are included in the appropriate drawing Figure(s) as required by 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over European Patent EP 0 362 058 B1 in view of Harrison (US 5,417,152). The European Patent discloses the claimed subject matter except for the motor having two driving speeds with a first switch and a second switch. The patent to Harrison (Fig. 11) discloses that it is known in the art to have a juicer with two driving speeds including a first switch and a second switch. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided the juicer of the European Patent with two driving speeds including a first switch and a second switch in the manner suggested by Harrison in order to squeeze juice from the pulp so that a larger yield of juice can be achieved.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
